

HOLIDAY BAKE SALE AND ELECTRONIC COOKBOOK

Do you have a favorite family dessert that everyone is asking for during the Holidays?

Is it always the first item to be gobbled up from the dessert table?

Would you like to buy a dessert and pass it off as your own?here is your chance!

We are seeking your donated baked goods for our first Holiday Bake Sale and Electronic Cookbook!

The Combined Federal Campaign Holiday Bake Sale will be Thursday, November 19 between 11:00am and 1:00pm at the IESB Building. Pull out your favorite recipe and "Make it Possible" with your donation of baked goods. Drop off baked items on the tables just outside the cafeteria, November 19th between 8:00 and 10:30 at the IESB Building. If possible, please include an index card with the name of your item and if it has special dietary considerations like gluten-free, sugar-free, vegan or peanuts. Any questions should be sent to yvette.d.mardis@nasa.gov (4-5821).

HOLIDAY BAKE SALE AND ELECTRONIC COOKBOOK

Here's what we need:

Your baked goods and recipe for same, in the following suggested categories:

Sweets (whole pies, cakes, one dozen plated cookies, brownies, etc.). Whole cakes and pies as well as individual slices and pieces will be offered for sale.

Please include a short description of why your family loves your recipe-let us know if it is an important part of a holiday meal, was handed down through the family, etc.

Is it part of a tradition or holiday that your family holds dear?

Can you submit more than one recipe and baked good? YES!!

Recipes should be submitted via email by November 19, 2015 to:

yvette.d.mardis@nasa.gov. A fillable recipe template has been created in order to make it simple to provide the recipe for your donated items. All recipes will then be combined into an electronic cookbook and distributed just in time for use during the Holidays!
